

Foundations of Stewardship – Lesson #8

The Stewardship of Truth-Through Discipleship

A. Introduction: The Stewardship of Truth

B. What is Discipleship and why should we study it?

1. According to Keathley “God doesn’t want us to hoard all that He has taught us. He wants us to help others grow. That process is called discipleship...”
2. Because this is God’s _____ for us. (Matthew 28:19-20)
3. Because of our natural tendency is to _____ doing it!
 - False Humility
 - Lack of commitment, too busy
 - Ignorance

C. Why Should We be a Disciple Maker

1. You are a truth manager, it is God’s desire for you to _____ it.
2. Meeting with people and teaching them Biblical truths benefits _____.
3. Teaching others requires us to study the Word, which benefits _____.

D. How Do I Make Disciples

1. Start with someone _____ in your life, but don’t _____ there.
2. Encourage them to go to a good local _____ and encourage them to share _____ faith.
3. Share the principles and promises from God’s Word that you’ve been taught, and teach them how to study the Word for _____.