

My God Is Worthy of Praise Every Day

Psalm 57

SETTING

- Composed by:
- Where:
- When:
 - This setting fits David's life on at least two occasions. (1 Samuel 22:1; 24:3)

A. “YOU ARE TRUSTWORTHY” (vv. 1-5)

1. “I’m planning to trust You, God.” (vv. 1-3)
 - How is trust in God pictured?
 - What can we remind ourselves about God?
 - How can Christians be assured of God’s justice and goodness?
2. “I’m in a tough place, God.” (v. 4)
 - How are David’s troublers described?
3. “Be exalted.” (v. 5)
 - Even in a cave, what was David’s highest priority?

B. “YOU ARE PRAISEWORTHY” (vv. 6-11)

1. “I’m in a tough place, God.” (v. 6)

- Even in a cave, what does David remember about persecution?

2. “You deserve my worship, God.” (vv. 7-10)

- Where does worship start? (v. 7)

- What is fitting for our God? (v. 8)

- When should praise begin each day? (v. 8)

- Who should hear about the praiseworthiness of our God? (v. 9)

- Why is our God praiseworthy? (v. 10)

3. “Be exalted.” (v. 11)

- Even when you’re in a tough place, what is your highest purpose?