

The Family of God vs. Fellowship with God

DIFFERENCES

FAMILY OF GOD	FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD
The family of God is entered at a _____ in time when you are _____ (John 1:12-13, 3:1-18; 1 John 3:2).	Fellowship is enjoyed in the _____ if a believer _____ in the LIGHT (1 John 1:3-7).
To be in the family of God, _____ alone is required (John 1:12; Galatians 3:26).	To have fellowship with God, _____ and _____ of sin are required (1 John 1:9; Heb. 11:6).
Being in the family of God is a _____ unchangeable position. (John 5:24, 10:27)	Being in Fellowship with God is a _____ , possibly changing condition. (1John 1:8-9, Eph 4:30-31)
Being in the family of God is true of _____ genuine believers in Christ (Galatians 3:26; 1 John 5:1).	Having fellowship with God is _____ true of all believers in Christ... "if" (1 John 1:5-10).
In the family of God, sins are _____ / _____ forgiven (Ephesians 1:7; Colossians 2:13; 1 John 2:12).	To enjoy fellowship, one's sins must be _____ forgiven (1 John 1:9).
Being born again is evidenced by a new _____ (2 Peter 1:3-4), by God's CHASTISEMENT (Heb. 12:6-8); and by the believer becoming a new CREATION in Christ (2 Corinthians 5:17).	Fellowship with God is evidenced by _____ to God's will (1 John 2:3-6) and _____ for other believers (1 John 2:7-11).

SIMILARITIES

It's all by God's _____
It's all due to _____
It's enjoyed through faith in God's _____

*Draw the circles on the back